

Spring 2016

Tuesdays:
12:15-
1:30 PM

124 Petit
Science Center

Mark Beirne, MD., General Practice/Bariatrics Travel Medicine & Infectious Disease

Join us for an exciting Spring semester!! Hear a practicing ER doctor discuss his rewarding experiences as a MD.

January
19th

Carmen Eilertson, PhD., Biology Senior Lecturer, Pre-Med Advisor, GSU – Personal Statements

Do you know how to make your personal statement stand out? Meet Dr. Eilertson, a premed Committee Member at GSU.

February
2nd

Michael Oso, Second Year Medical Student, Morehouse School of Medicine

Discover what it is like to be in medical school. Get tips on how to get accepted into a MD program.

February
16th

Carmen Eilertson, PhD, Biology Senior Lecturer, Pre-Med Advisor, GSU – AAMCAS Application Tips

Are you ready to apply to medical school? Learn step by step about the application process.

March
1st

Gigi Ray, PhD., Chemistry Senior Lecturer, GSU – Undergraduate Biochemistry Research

Explore the exciting Biochemistry Concentration, Biochem. Research Opportunities at GSU, and paid internships.

March
8th

Director of Admissions From Emory University, & Darel Thomas, Anesthesiology Assistant Student

Learn about the Anesthesiology Assistance Program, and what medical school admission committees are looking for.

March 22nd

Giselle Blair, MD., St. George's University Graduate, University Hospital Augusta

Find out about a different route to medical school from a Caribbean medical school graduate.

April 5th

Join Us on

Facebook: AMSA@GSU

Orgsync: AMSA

Twitter: AMSA@GSU

Instagram: AMSA@GSU

AMSA Office

216 Courtland North

All GSU students are welcome

Lunch is served

