

PRE-PHARMACY PROFESSIONAL SOCIETY (PPPS)

Spring 2016
Langdale Hall, Room 718
Thursdays, 12pm-1pm

Afome Okoye, Representative from Kaplan Test Preparation
Opening Meeting
Learn about upcoming meetings, plans, and ideas for this fun-filled semester! Kaplan will discuss great opportunities they offer!
January 28th

Dr. Victoria Mariani, PCAT Overview & Study Skills Session
Have you taken the PCAT yet? Do you want to improve your scores? Join us for an informative session and improve your study skills.
February 11th

Dr. Indu Shekar, Retail Pharmacist, CVS Pharmacy
Are you interested in a career in retail pharmacy? Join us for a behind the scenes account of the fast-paced, demanding career of a pharmacist!
February 25th

Discovery Day/ Atlanta Science Festival Planning Meeting
PPPS will be presenting a booth at these events in late March. If you are interested in volunteering please attend this planning meeting.
March 3rd

Volunteering Opportunities: Science Olympiad March 5th
Discovery Day March 19th Atlanta Science Festival March 26th

Alfred Moore, Admissions Representative, University of South Carolina College of Pharmacy
Have you considered applying to the University of South Carolina's Pharmacy program? Explore the programs they offer!
March 10th

Admissions Representative Univ. of Florida College of Pharmacy
Want to find out what it takes to be accepted to this pharmacy program? Come join us and learn! (Webinar)
March 24th

Career Services, Resume & Personal Statement Workshop
Does your resume and/or personal statement need a little work? This is the place for you to be!
April 14th

Barbara Burke, Regional Director, School of Pharmacy at Wingate University
Discover the program at Wingate University and the prerequisites you need to get accepted!
April 28th

Find us on Facebook and Orgsync by searching "Pre-Pharmacy Professional Society at GSU" for updates and changes

FREE FOOD AT ALL MEETINGS
E-mail: gsuppps@gmail.com